

A word from our president

Back in the studio - getting back to normal?!

We are back in the studio but restrictions still apply.

Masks are desirable but not compulsory yet unless some 'covidiot' runs amok in Queensland.

The Kilns

are still working hard - your work is coming in on a regular basis now. There is still a bit of work to be picked up from the shelves and paid for.

Other Firings

Mid-firing and Raku will now be back on the agenda, especially the cooler months for the Raku.

Our Annual Exhibition

Yes, it is coming up soon enough in October. Have your best work ready for display and maybe a sale or two in the Richard Randall Gallery at Mt Coot-tha. There will not be a formal opening this year due to the restrictions of numbers in the gallery.

We have pieces donated for the raffle and will have details of those soon.

The flyer can be seen below and we will have social media items and posters for you to circulate soon.

Library Display in September

The library is not holding any further displays for 2020 - another victim of the coronavirus.

BVAC Pop-up-Shop

The pop-up is back on 21-22 November at the Botanic Gardens Mt Coot-tha: the format has changed but we will be there.

Other Local Exhibitions

The Redcliffe Pottery Group and CAQ will be having their exhibitions in the coming months - see their info on the following pages.

Stay well and busy - cheers, David

Results from Glaze Workshop 2020

These are samples of some of the glazes put together in the glaze workshop and recently fired once we were back in the studio - seems like a long time ago!

Some of the participants have gone on to make their own glazes.
