Totems with Rachael part 1

Totems are very popular these days. Rachael is a past master and has been producing outstanding examples for many years! Everyone is enjoying the process with her. Firing and glazing next!

Our members have been busy at various venues!

Helena Mendes wall hanging "Vessels" with Sogetsu Ikebana Qld at Makers Gallery Australia.

Installation by Sogetsu Ikebana Qld in Natalie's Girraween inspired vessel.

Natalie's work selected by Ray Cavill to include in the Pioneers Museum and utilizing existing museum pieces to incorporate as plinths.

Natalie's BIA members entry "Petrified promise".

Mould Making Workshop - July 2026

Kirstin Farr will be presenting a Mold Making Workshop on Saturday, 25th July, from 1pm to 4pm.

At this 'watch and learn' gathering Kirstin will introduce participants to the technical aspects of creating moulds as well as fun ways to use them differently on functional and sculptural pieces by adding and altering sprigs etc. Cost $40 - Space for 12 members.

To secure your place, send an email to Gai McDonald at gai.mcdonald.23@gmail.com. Or, write your name on the whiteboard in the studio.

CLAYSCHOOL WINTER SHOW 19-21 JUN 2026

11 CROMBIE ST, MILTON

WHEN

Opening Night (Signup for invite) - Friday 19 June 2026
Open Days - Sat 20 & Sun 21 Dec 2026 | 8am - 2pm

A bi-annual event, the show presents the work of more than 50 artists (students and teachers) who each bring unique styles, techniques and creative voices. Across a range of forms, glazes and firing methods, visitors have a chance to purchase functional wares, sculptural pieces and experimental work.

More than an exhibition, the event is a gathering point for the local clay community: an opportunity to see emerging talent alongside experienced makers. The Clayschool Show captures both the technical skill and the imaginative risk-taking that are shaping Brisbane's Clay Culture, offering a rich experience for anyone curious about clay and a great opportunity to buy some quality pots.
