What Have You Done 2019

It is time again to submit photos of your best work produced in 2019.

You may submit up to 3 entries with one photo of each. Send your images to wsclayworkers@hotmail.com

HURRY! Entries close Friday 15 November!

Members will then receive a link to a closed webpage so you can vote for your favourites.

We already have a few entries; so get clicking on your camera or phone and get them in by this Friday.

Saturday opening

We have had one trial of this at the start of November and hope to continue in December.

Decorating workshops

21 November: Carving and piercing leather-hard ware.

BVAC Pop-up-Shop for Xmas

Several of our members will be involved in the Pop-up-Shop at the end of the month

Our Annual Exhibition

Over for another year

The 2019 Exhibition was held 19-20 October at the Richard Randall Art Studio in the Mt Coot-tha Botanical Gardens.

We had over 60 pieces entered from 18 members.

The weather on the Saturday morning was very wet with a storm passing through (don't we miss that now!). The advantage was we offered shelter from the rain and hence the opening was well attended.

Get working on pieces for next year - we have booked Richard Randall again.

Library display

Thanks to everyone who contributed.

The display was very well received by the public and we even managed a few sales

We have booked for next year - in September this time.

The AGM and Xmas Party

Our next meeting will be our AGM and Xmas party in the hall at the Centre.

All member are encouraged to attend and celebrate the year.

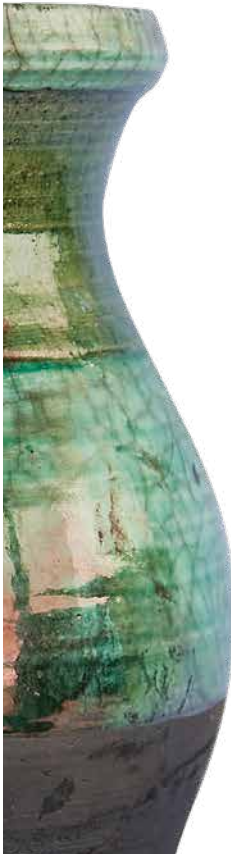

You are also encouraged to consider being on the committee. We need some fresh ideas from time to time and need some new blood to provide it.

A notice or 2 will be sent out regarding catering - we all contribute toward the day and it is always a lot of fun.

And don't forget a $10 Secret Santa gift!

Cheers, David
